CHRISTINA Honored at West Coast Premiere

CHRISTINA received an Outstanding Achievement In Filmmaking award from the 2010 Newport Beach Film Festival in an announcement on April 30th.

Located one hour from Los Angeles, the Newport Beach Film Festival has a reputation for attracting film industry distributors and celebrities alike. Founded in 1999, this year's festival showcased 350 films from 47 countries.

The Friday night screening was CHRISTINA's first official showing at any film festival. The film had a second screening at Newport Beach on April 29th.
